

I do believe that deaf individuals should be free to use whatever service provider they choose. Restrictions by one company to use only its services should not be allowed.